TRENDS

The trends and challenges that I see are as follows:

- #1: Export -> Understand other cultures
- #2: Distribution -> additional innovation required
- #3: Increased competition -> Superior customer service, decision empowerment and attracting top talents
- #4: Productivity -> Increase the engagement of employees
- #5: Hiring -> Attract/keep high talents

Finding the right talents, developing them and empowering them at all levels to make good quality decisions is the key of success. People leadership at all levels will be the enabler of solutions for those challenges, while increasing productivity through reduced conflicts, tensions, misunderstandings, safety, less sickness and burn outs.
