

A Leaders' Journey – 10-week Group Study

DESCRIPTION

Raising the level of personal leadership effectiveness through an increased understanding of key leadership principles so that you will have an opportunity to experience greater self-leadership skills and influence with others.

We will provide a 10-week group study and facilitated discussion on lessons from expert leadership teacher, consultant, and author, John C Maxwell. This exploration of John's work will touch on several laws to include:

- "The Law of Solid Ground", – helping leaders to understand the power of trust
- "The Law of Addition" – establishing how leaders can add the most value,
- "The Law of the Picture" – each leader will learn how the model of leadership we display sets the tone for our team.

OUTLINE

Each of the four sessions will last 60 to 90 minutes on a weekly basis and will cover the following:

1. Few minutes catching up as a group
2. Watching together a brief (10-15 minutes) video teaching on the law to be studied by John Maxwell and Mark Cole and filling in the blanks on the worksheet
3. Answer application questions together for 10-15 minutes
4. Repeat from point 2 for the 2nd law
5. For the last session (week 10), repeat that process one more time – That session will be a minimum of 75 minutes

All 21 laws will be covered during this 10-week Group Study (2 per session, the last one with 3)

The first and last sessions will be conducted live/onsite, the eight middle ones virtually by teleconference or live/onsite (as an upgrade). It is advisable to purchase the book for each participant.

BENEFITS

At the conclusion of the training you will:

- have assessed your leadership strengths and weaknesses
- discuss them within your team and discover how to interact in the most optimal way
- developed and practiced the behaviours required to effectively lead yourself and others
- and have identified ways to incorporate and apply the laws in your daily life

You will be presented with a certificate of completion issued by the John Maxwell Team.
